HAIG PRAISES WORK OF THE SECOND CORPS

With the British Army in Belgium, Nov. 26. (P)—The American Second corps, which served with the British Fourth army during the closing days of the war has been rewarded for its work in a glowing letter of praise from Field Marshal Haig. The Field Marshal's message to the commander of the corps reads in part:

"The deeds of the 27th and 30th American Divisions which took Bellecour and Nauray and gallantly sustained the desperate struggle for Boumy will rank with the highest achievements of the war."

VETERAN AMERICAN DIVISION EMBARKING AT FRENCH PORT

American Army Headquarters in France, Nov. 26. (P)—The seventy-fifth division of the American army, reduced by replacement drafts to 61 officers and 1,000 men, has arrived at the port of St. Nazaire and is embarking for home.

The twenty-seventh division, totaling 484 officers and 412,099 men and the thirtieth division, totaling 488 officers and 12,054 men, have been withdrawn from the Le Mans area and probably will embark in a few days. Both these divisions operated on the British front.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Army transportation officials said today that the steamers Minnekahda, Lapland and Orta, which are bringing home 7,000 American soldiers from England, probably will arrive at New York about Dec. 2.

BELIEVE DIVISIONS WERE NOT REDUCED BY CASUALTIES ALONE

Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—News from France today that the 27th and 30th Divisions, which have been fighting with the British Fourth army, have been withdrawn with only approximately 12,500 officers and men in each does not mean that these organizations have been reduced to less than half their normal strength in the severe fighting on the British front before the signing of the armistice.

Army officers recalled today that only the infantry and machine gun units of these divisions went into action with the British forces, the artillery being used elsewhere.

The 27th Division is the New York National Guard division and the 30th Division was composed of the Tennessee, North and South Carolina National Guard and was known as the "Wild Cat" Division.

Both these organizations saw heavy action with the British and the losses undoubtedly have been heavy but it is not regarded as probable that half their original strength figured in the casualty lists.

FRONT LINE MEN NOT HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

From Line Men. A P.—Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—Fighting divisions of the American Expeditionary forces can not be landed in the United States before Christmas. Secretary Baker said today. The policy of returning first the thousands of casualties and the auxiliary troops from England will postpone the movement of first line troops who have been designated for relief by Gen. Pershing.

The postoffice last night received several thousand letters from soldiers in France and many a Lamar county home will have additional reasons for Thanksgiving.

AMERICAN NAVY LOSS SMALL COMPARED TO THAT OF THE BRITISH

Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—Deaths in the navy from "war causes" totaled 1233, Surgeon General Braisted today told the house naval committee which is framing the 1920 naval appropriation bill. No figures were given as to deaths from disease.

The bodies of practically all navy men, dying in foreign service, the surgeon general said, have been returned home.

Detailed British Losses. London, Nov. 26. (P)—The British naval casualties from the outbreak of the war to Nov. 11 numbered 39,756, the admiralty announced tonight. These were divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds, 33,351. Wounded, missing or prisoners, 6,405.

In addition 14,661 officers and men of British merchant vessels and fishing boats lost their lives while pursuing their ordinary vocation by enemy action and 3295 were taken prisoner.

AMERICAN CONTROL OF TURKEY DESIRED IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Constantinople, Nov. 26. (P)—American control of the Turkish gendarmerie and finances is being urged by a group of nine newspapers—seven Turkish and two French—in Constantinople. The group also advocates American supervision of the educational system and the separation of church and state.

A deputation will request permission to present the program to President Wilson during his visit to Paris. The program will be announced this week.

ALLENBY DESERVES ALL CHEERS HE GOT

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 26. (P)—Gen. Allenby, who commanded the victorious allied troops in Palestine and Syria in the operations against the Turks, has returned to Egypt from the battle front. The general, followed by his staff, made his formal entrance into Cairo today. Immense crowds acclaimed the officer along the entire route.

THE GERMAN WOULD BE RULERS HAVING FINE TIME MAKING PLANS

Basel, Nov. 26. (P)—Accounts of the conference of the representatives of the German federal states in Berlin received here quote Counsellor Ebert as declaring that a preliminary peace alone could save Germany. Unless the armistice was modified, he urged, the worst consequences would result.

The conference decided that the national assembly would be held at Frankfurt. Measures were taken to insure the unity of the empire. The territory of the empire, according to the decision reached, would be maintained with some reorganization.

The representatives of South Germany have been invited to sit in the assembly.

MARSHAL FOCH VISITS LUXEMBURG

Luxemburg, Nov. 26. (P)—Marshal Foch, the allied commander-in-chief, has established headquarters here. He arrived in Luxemburg yesterday with his staff. No ceremonies were held in honor of his entrance.

SOUTH AMERICAN WAR BLOWS UP BEFORE IT GOT REALLY STARTED

New York, Nov. 26. (P)—The difficulty between Peru and Chile which resulted yesterday in the recall of their consular representatives by each nation from the principal cities of its neighbor have been overcome by an apology on the part of the Peruvian government. Carlos Castro Ruiz, consul general of Chile, announced here tonight.

A cablegram informing him of the Peruvian apology was received tonight by Mr. Ruiz.

The message, the consul asserted, authorized him to announce that the Peruvian officials announced that in making public the reports of outbreaks against their citizens in Iquique and Antofagasta, Chile, they had acted on misinformation. This was furnished, he said, by the Peruvian consul at Iquique whose authority had been cancelled for this reason by the Chilean government.

The apology sent from Lima, Mr. Ruiz added, was wholly satisfactory to Chilean officials and "brought the misunderstanding to an end."

CONVICT CONFESSES MURDER AND SAVES 19-YEAR-OLD GIRL

New York, Nov. 26. (P)—James Reagan, a Sing Sing convict, confessed today that it was he who killed Mrs. Helen Hamel in her boarding house here last February, exonerating Miss Elizabeth Baksa, of Freemansburg, Pa., nineteen years old, now on trial charged with murder.

Reagan declared that he had intended to kill Miss Baksa when she came into Mrs. Hamel's house, where she roomed, just before he had strangled the elder woman to death. The pleading of a "pal" in the crime, "don't do that, Jim, one is enough," induced him, he said to let Miss Baksa go. Reagan told the district attorney, after ten hours of questioning that he could not let an innocent girl go to the electric chair for his crime.

The district attorney, who stated that he was not satisfied with some parts of Reagan's confession, will check up its various features with other evidence in the case. Reagan will be examined by alienists.

Miss Baksa fled to Freemansburg, Pa., after the murder. When she returned four days later, impelled, as she declared to tell what she knew of the killing, she was arrested and later indicted for the crime. She maintained from the start of her trial recently that an unknown man had strangled Mrs. Hamel and had threatened to kill her unless she "went away and kept quiet."

BRITISH BOMBERS DID GREAT WORK

London, Nov. 26. (P)—Statistics published relative to the work of the Independent Air Forces shows that during the thirteen months preceding the armistice, 709 bombing raids were made by British bombers over German territory. The list of large towns visited shows that fifty-two were bombed during the period. In all 737 tons of bombs were dropped.

LUDENDORFF QUILTS GERMAN SOIL REPORT

Copenhagen, Nov. 26. (P)—General Ludendorff, reported to have been long the actual directing head of Germany's military affairs, has quit German soil, according to the Farmfort Gazette. It says he left Sassnitz, Prussia, for Sweden. His titular position in the German military system was that of first quartermaster general.

THEY'LL GET HIM WHEN THEY WANT HIM DESPITE WHAT HOLLAND THINKS

London, Nov. 26. (P)—It is understood that the question of the extradition of the former German emperor is being considered by British law officers of the Crown who are working in close co-operation with the French authorities. Action in the premises was taken immediately after the flight of the former emperor to Holland.

The Evening News says it understands the law officers have concluded that the allies are entitled to demand the extradition of the former emperor and that this decision applies also to individuals who have committed or given instructions for commission of extraditable crimes.

It is said that Holland takes the view that she has not the power to surrender such persons without the consent of Germany.

AMERICAN ARMY OVERLOOKS GERMANY FROM THE MOSELLE

With the American Army of Occupation, Sunday, Nov. 24. (P)—American forces are standing on the west side of the Moselle river tonight. The extreme left of the line is at the frontier village of Vallendorf on the Sauer river. From this point it follows the Sauer to its confluence with the Moselle and extends along the latter river as far south as Garsch.

The third division was the first to reach the German frontier, having established headquarters overlooking Germany today. The division will remain along the line near Remich, on the southeastern frontier of Luxembourg until the army of occupation moves ahead into Germany. Among the other units on the American front the 26th Infantry of the first division, which has its headquarters in the village of Emen, Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., is occupying a room in a hotel there formerly occupied by Major Von Hindenburg, son of the field marshal. His rooms overlook the Moselle and the bluffs on the German side, which are devoted to the raising of grapes.

BOLSHEVIKS FAIL TO CARRY ELECTIONS HELD IN GERMANY

Berlin, Nov. 26. (P)—Reports of tests of strength between the conservative elements and the independent and "Bolshevik" socialists in various places in Germany continue to indicate that as far as mere numbers go, the extremists are almost negligible.

The elections to the soldiers' and workmen's council in Dresden on Sunday show that the extremists polled only 1300 votes against 56,400 for the old socialists. Both groups of independents won only three or four seats in the council of fifty.

Fuller reports from Bremen show that the movement in the coast cities already has turned into a more conservative channel.

At a meeting of soldiers' workmen's and peasants' councils, representing Bremen, Hanover, Oldenburg, Flensburg, Osnobruck, Wilhelmshaven and a number of smaller places in the provinces of Hanover and Schleswig-Holstein adopted a resolution declaring that these councils would stand behind the present government and demand the convocation of a national assembly. The resolution was adopted by a vote of eighty-one to twenty. There also was a crushing defeat for the extremists at a meeting representing the tenth army corps at Hannover where by a vote of 149 to four a resolution was adopted against efforts to establish a dictatorship and

PRESIDENT WILL GREET NEW YEAR IN EUROPE AT PEACE CONFERENCE

GERMANS FUSSING ABOUT FIXING BLAME FOR LOSING THE WAR

With the American Army of Occupation, Nov. 26. (P)—Friction has developed between Prussians and Bavarians in the German army withdrawing before the American army of occupation. Responsibility for the loss of the war is one of the chief causes of dissension, according to reports.

Prussian officers continue to contend that they are returning home with the hope of being able eventually to bring about the reinstatement of the former emperor to power.

Beyond Treves the withdrawing German troops are being received with open arms by the civilians in the villages. This is reported by British soldiers reaching the American lines.

Everywhere, the Britons said, the civilians had strung signs of welcome over the village streets and are receiving the German soldiers as heroes.

TEXAS GERMANS WERE PRAISED BY BREWERS IN 1915

Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—Documents showing propaganda methods of the German-American Alliance, sometime co-operating with the United States Brewers' association and the National Association of Commerce and Labor, were today placed in the records of the senate judiciary committee's investigation of brewers' activities.

One of the documents dealt with the alliance's efforts to combat "anti-Germanism" in Texas, referred to in a report of the propaganda and organization committee of the alliance at the convention in San Francisco in 1915.

"Our next look we directed to Texas, where fanatics had declared war upon Germanism to the hilt," said the report written by Joseph Keller of Indianapolis, Ind. "We found there a glorious thorough-going, self-conscious Germanism, both in the second, third and also the fourth generations which was for the most part centralized in a mighty order of the Sons of Hermann. Most comforting was the result of the election in which the German vote in Texas made itself felt more strongly than ever before made and it was undoubtedly the factor which saved the state from a puritanical yoke."

demanding the summoning of a constituent assembly.

Soldiers from the front are beginning to arrive in Berlin and men who have conversed with them express themselves optimistically as to the result of their arrival as regards its effect upon the preservation of order. These men declare that the great bulk of the soldiers reject Bolshevism in all its phases.

It also may perhaps be considered an indication of the general public's faith in the conservatism of the soldiers that German and Prussian flags are beginning to reappear over all Berlin, after having made way for the red flag since November 10. Only in one of the suburbs was any objection raised to the flying of the national flag. Certain elements there tore the Prussian banners from the street cars. Elsewhere the emblems were not disturbed.

Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—President Wilson will sail for Europe next week to attend the opening of the peace conference and he expects to be back in Washington soon after the middle of January.

Plans for the President's trip are going steadily ahead but beyond the original announcement that he would leave immediately after the convening of congress on Dec. 2, no details have been made public. However it was said today authoritatively that the President plans to be back on American soil within six weeks after his ship leaves this side.

It became known today that the Italian ambassador, Count Di Celere, as well as Ambassador Jusserand of France, and the American peace delegation, will cross on the ship with the President, but no one professes to know either when the start will be made, or just who will make up the party. An announcement by the President himself of the personnel of the peace delegation is expected in a day or two.

Among many messages received from England, France and Italy urging Mr. Wilson not to let unfavorable criticisms interfere with his plans, it is understood to be one from Lord Northcliffe, earnestly suggesting that all objections should be disregarded because the President's presence is essential.

There has been no indication when the peace conference will assemble but the general belief here is that it will convene immediately after the holidays. The President goes in advance to confer with the entente statesmen.

Reports of censorship of news of the peace conference were met today with the statement that not only would there be no censorship but that the American newspaper correspondents would be given all facilities possible for transmitting their dispatches.

WICKERSHAM SAYS MARSHALL ACTS WHEN WILSON GOES ABROAD

New York, Nov. 26. (P)—George W. Wickersham, attorney general in the Taft administration, in an address here tonight advanced the opinion that the constitution makes it mandatory upon Vice President Marshall to assume the office of President if Mr. Wilson leaves the United States to attend the peace conference.

"The projected journey of the President to France and his suggested sojourn there for an indefinite period," said Mr. Wickersham, "brings up for the first time in our history the question of the effect of such an absence or the powers of the vice president because of the effect of such action."

The former attorney general quoted Sec. 1, Art. 2, of the United States constitution which he said prescribed the mode of procedure in the event of the President's removal from office, his death, resignation or inability to discharge the duties of said office. He maintained that absence of the President from the seat of government and the country "constitutes an inability to discharge the powers and duties of his office" within the meaning of the law.

POLICE CALLED OUT PROTECT SOCIALISTS

New York, Nov. 26. (P)—Police reserves from three inspection districts were ordered out late tonight to prevent a clash between soldiers and sailors and socialists attending a meeting of internationalists in East 58th street.

A. J. Howard, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office, and his wife, both of whom have been influenza patients at St. Joseph's Infirmary, have recovered and are back in the telegraph office.

LIEUT. BILLINGSLEY WAS SLIGHTLY GASED

On October 31 Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Billingsley received a cablegram from their son, Lieut. Roland Billingsley, who is with the army in France, in which he stated that he was getting along all right. It occurred to them that the message was a little unusual and it created a suspicion that he must have been sick or wounded and had sent it to reassure them in the event that they should hear of it. After the armistice was signed they received another cablegram which simply announced, "Am well." Yesterday his parents received a letter from him, which was dated Oct. 24, in which he said he had been pretty sick, but that he would be out in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Duval received a letter yesterday from their son, Frank, who was at work in a base hospital in France. He stated that Lieut. Billingsley had been slightly gassed. The many friends of the family will be glad to know that his condition was not serious, and that by this time he has probably made a complete recovery.

WALKED ON SHOWCASES AND COMMITTED HAVOC

Visitors from Deport yesterday stated that some young men who had become inspired by a touch of high life proceeded to go roughshod through a business house and tear up things. It was claimed that they walked on top of showcases on the counters and smashed the glass in them and in the front door. It was claimed that they also kicked a billboard to pieces at a market and restaurant, and that they cursed a lady in an automobile and committed other high-handed acts. The News informant stated that Mack Reed, the local deputy sheriff, made four arrests and that the young men pleaded guilty and paid fines.

PARIS WOMAN WIFE OF A GALLANT OFFICER

The Army and Navy Journal contains an item to the effect that Mrs. D. D. Gregory of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., had received word from her husband, Col. Gregory, in France that he had been gassed and was in the hospital recovering from his injuries. Mrs. Gregory was formerly Miss Dell Scales of Paris, a sister of Irving Scales. She was married to Col. Gregory in Wingate, N. M., when he was a captain. He is at present a colonel of the 5th cavalry and has made a brilliant record in the fighting in France under Major-General Dickman, by whom he was cited for ability and bravery. He was gassed in one of the last battles that were fought.

WILL HAVE ONE SESSION ON THANKSGIVING DAY

On account of the inroad that has been made in the work of the schools by influenza causing a suspension, Thanksgiving will not be observed tomorrow, as heretofore, by remaining closed all day. It has been the custom in observing Thanksgiving to dismiss for the rest of the week in order that the teachers might attend the annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association. The loss of two days at present would be a serious drawback. The High School will have one session from 8:30 to 1 o'clock, and the children of the different wards will be expected to be in their places, but they will be dismissed in time to take Thanksgiving dinner at home. A few of the teachers will get off to Dallas Friday afternoon to attend the closing proceedings of the state convention, but not as many as if there were no school on Thanksgiving day.

His driving has not been confined to the dirt tracks, however, as he has been a regular entrant in most of the speedway events held in the United States during the past seven years, and is one of the drivers that helped to make the Indianapolis 500 mile race an International event.

TO OBTAIN DIVORCED

HUSBAND'S INSURANCE

Deputy Sheriff Partlow of Antlers passed through Paris Sunday night on his way to Greenville, where he arrested a negro woman on the charge of kidnapping her own child, a ten-year-old boy. Under the laws of Texas a parent cannot kidnap his own child, but it is said to be different in Oklahoma. The father of the boy had obtained a divorce from the mother and in the proceedings was awarded custody of him. Shortly afterward he was drafted in the army and left the child with his grandmother.

The father was sent to France, where he was killed in action. His life was insured for $10,000 in favor of his mother and his child. Shortly after he was killed his divorced wife married again, and it was claimed that the second husband instigated her to kidnap the boy in order to claim the insurance on the life of her former husband. The Antlers officer found the negro woman in Greenville and got her to sign a waiver of extradition papers.

When she reached here in charge of the officer an effort was made to secure her release, but she having signed a waiver was powerless to resist by resort to legal proceedings.

THE BEST PROOF

Given By a Paris Citizen

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they brought benefit.

This story was told to Paris residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is home testimony.

The proof convincing.

It can be investigated by Paris residents.

G. R. Lewis, N. Twenty-sixth St., Paris, says: "I had backache and the kidney secretions were scanty in passage. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills were good for such troubles, I procured a box at Murphy's Drug Store. In a short time they cured me and I have had no return of the complaint."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER.

Mr. Lewis said: "I am glad to tell anyone afflicted with kidney trouble about Doan's Kidney Pills. I am pleased to confirm my former endorsement of this medicine."

RED CROSS SPEAKER

AND MOTION PICTURE

Famous motion picture stars, a well known New York studio, and an adorable little three-year old girl, all donated their services to the Red Cross for the vivid photoplay "For All Humanity," which will be shown here for the first and only time, on the evening of December 3d at the Grand theater.

"For All Humanity" is the story of a soldier's devotion, a child's love and the Red Cross at home and overseas. Many of the scenes were taken in France and Italy, some of them at a great risk and actually under fire.

Heading the cast, in the role of the Red Cross nurse, is Miss Jane Vance, the little West Virginia girl who starred in the widely successful, patriotic serial picture "A Daughter of Uncle Sam." Miss Vance's present role is one of her best creations.

Jack Harland, of the famous Players-Lasky Corporation, plays the part of the young soldier whose fortunes are followed throughout the picture. Miss Gloria Goodwin will be seen as the soldier's wife, Betty Clarke, the adorable three-year old tot whose work before the camera has already created a furore, will appear in many appealing scenes as the soldier's child.

The Norma Talmadge Film Corporation donated the use of its studios for all interior scenes used in the picture. The picture should prove an effective means of showing the people what becomes of the service they give and the millions they subscribe to the Red Cross.

The picture will be displayed by Dr. Martin E. Hardin, official representative of the Red Cross War Council at Washington, who has just returned from overseas and has a vital message for everyone whose boy is over there. Dr. Hardin's message will be a feature of the evening. No admission will be charged.

PROCLAMATION

Paris, Texas, Nov. 26, 1918.

WHEREAS, the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of Texas have designated Thursday, November 28, as a day of general Thanksgiving and have requested that on said date the people assemble at a common place in each community and with music and other appropriate exercises return thanks for the blessings of peace and the glorious victories achieved by our armies and people.

Now, therefore, I, J. M. Crook, Mayor of the City of Paris, Texas, do hereby proclaim Thursday November 28, as a day of General Thanksgiving and request all citizens to strictly observe said day and refrain from the prosecution of their ordinary affairs thereon and all unite in the "Liberty Song" and other exercises to be held on said date at the First Christian Church in the City of Paris at 7:30 p. m.

Given under my hand and the seal of the City of Paris, affixed this 26th day of November, A. D. 1918.

J. M. Crook,

Mayor, City of Paris.

Attest: Judd W. Wright,

City Secretary.

I am knitting a pair of socks for the Red Cross and lack enough thread for one toe. If any one can let me have a small ball of light brown wool, or you may call it a brown grey, I will greatly appreciate the favor. Mrs. A. P. Boyd, Ring 319.

The Red Cross rooms will be closed all day Thursday. Those desiring to send Christmas packages can call at rooms any day this week except Thursday.

SENATE KILLS WAR

TAX UPON AUTOS

Washington, Nov. 26. (P)—In further revision of the war revenue bill, the Senate finance committee today struck out entirely the proposed federal license tax on use of automobiles and motorcycles which ranged from $10 to $50 annually in the House bill according to horsepower, and from $5 to $25 under the plan previously adopted by the Senate committee.

Y. W. C. A. WORK

Madame Bernard will speak in the High School Auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p. m. Madame Bernard is a Frenchwoman, widow of a French officer who was killed in the first three weeks of the war. She has lived in England, France, Spain, India and other countries of Europe and Asia. She has a great message about the meaning of the World War for people all over the world, and its underlying effects on nations. Madame Bernard has been in France every day of the war since August, 1914, until October 15th last, when she sailed for America as a guest of the National Y. W. C. A. of America, to speak for the United War Work Drive. During these four years she has worked at all the stern and heart breaking tasks of relief that have fallen to the women of France. She has personally inspected many of the Red Cross supplies from American women that have been sent to the great American Red Cross headquarters in Paris. She says that every woman in France feels the warmest gratitude toward her American sisters for their splendid help. For the past eight months she has worked with the American Y. W. C. A. in its recreation work for the French women at the great munition center of Lyons.

WOMAN CAN'T FIND WORDS TO EXPRESS HERSELF

"After six years of suffering from stomach trouble I am feeling fine. All the bloating and soreness is gone from my stomach and bowels. I can eat all I like now. I can't think of any words suitable enough to praise Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I am sure it has saved my life. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. GERMANS PROTEST EVACUATION TERMS BUT THAT'S ALL

Paris, Nov. 26.—(Havas)—German delegates at the mixed conference at Spa have protested against the rejection of their request that they be granted a delay of two weeks in evacuating Luxembourg, Lorraine and the Saar region. General Nudant, one of the French conferees, stated that he considered this protest wholly groundless.

GERMAN NAVY IS RUINED SAYS ONE OF ITS OFFICERS

Firth of Forth, Scotland, Monday, Nov. 25. (AP)—Germany's navy has been ruined for all time, in the opinion of a German lieutenant on one of the warships surrendered to the allies. He said today:

"Now we have only a dishonorable record. No one will want to serve in a disgraced service."

Inspection of the German vessels is proceeding. They are in a deplorable state, having been apparently neglected for a long time. The German sailors present a miserable appearance, their clothes being dirty and nondescript.

On the Darfingler there is perfect discipline, but on most of the other ships the men lounge about the decks smoking.

"Somewhere in France" With Empey

"With that Ginger stooped and, by main strength, lifted Huston onto his back and staggered toward our lines. The bullets and pieces of shrapnel were cracking and 'swishing' all around. He had gone about fifty yards when a piece of shell hit his left arm just below the shoulder. Down he went, Huston with him, but was soon up, his left arm dangling and swinging at his side. Turning to Huston, who was lying on his back, he said: 'I'm hard hit—it's your life or mine. We're only ten yards from our trench; try to make it on your own. You ought to be able to crawl in.'

"But Huston answered: 'Burton, don't leave me—I am bleeding to death. For the love of God get me in! You can have Betty, money, anything I have, it is all yours—just save my life. Answer me, man, answer—'

"You want my answer, do you? Well, take it and damn you!" With that Ginger slapped the officer in the face; then, grabbing him by the collar with his right arm, the blood soaking his tunic from the shell wound in his left, Ginger slowly dragged Huston to the trench and fainted. A mighty cheer went up from our lines. Stretcher bearers took them both to an advanced first-aid post, and their journey to Blighty and Betty was started.

On the trip over Ginger never regained consciousness. They landed in a hospital in England and were put in beds next to each other. Ginger was taken up into the 'pictures' (operating theater), where his arm was amputated at the shoulder. Huston's wound was slight; bullet through the calf of leg.

"While Ginger was coming out of ether he told all he knew. A Red

A Red-Cross Nurse With Tear-Dimmed Eyes Was Holding His Hand.

Cross nurse, with tear-dimmed eyes, was holding his hand. Occasionally she would look across at Huston in the next bed; he would slowly nod his head at each questioning glance of hers, while the red blood of shame mounted to his temples.

"Then Ginger came to. He saw a beautiful vision. Thought he was dreaming. Sitting by his bed, dressed in a Red Cross nurse's uniform, was Betty, Huston's Betty, holding his hand. Betty, with tears in her eyes, but this time tears of joy. The sweat came out on his forehead—it couldn't be true. He gasped out the one word, 'Betty!'

"Stooping over, the vision kissed him on the lips and murmured, 'My Ginger, you have come back to Betty!'

"Then he slept. Next morning the colonel of the hospital came to Ginger's bedside and congratulated him, telling him that he had been recommended for the V. C. Ginger refused the V. C. from the government; said he had not earned it, would not give the reasons but persisted in his refusal. They can't force you to take a V. C.

"Five months later Ginger and Betty were married. She cuts his meat for him now; says that all his faults were contained in his left arm. He lost that. So, you see, Ginger was somewhat of a man, after all, wasn't he, mates?"

We agreed that he was. I asked Happy how he came to know these details. He answered:

"Well, Yank, Betty happens to be my sister. Gimme a fag, some one. I am about talked out, and, anyway, we've only got a few minutes before 'stand to.'

Just then the voice of our sergeant sounded from the mouth of the dug-out: 'Equipment on! Stand to!'

So it was a case of turn out and mount our gun on the parapet. It was just getting dark. We would dismount it at 'Stand down' in the morning. Tommy is like an owl, sleeps in the day and watches at night. It was a miserable night, rainy and chilly. The mud in the trenches in some places was up to our knees. We knew we were in for it and wished we were back in Blighty, where one can at least change his clothes when they get wet, instead of waiting for a sunny day to dry them. At times we have been wet for a fortnight.

FINES DOG AND FOX CAUGHT BY TRAPS

Bowers, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Jack Mangus, a truck farmer near here, has long been known as an experienced and successful hunter and trapper an occupation which he follows during the winter months.

As customary at this time of the year he is trapping for skunks and muskrats. He has a fine hound which follows him on his rounds when he is out inspecting his traps.

A day or two ago Jack made his rounds and when he reached the last trap to be inspected he noticed that the dog was not with him. He says he whistled, shouted and beat about in the bushes, but the hound did not appear. Believing the animal would show up later, although his disappearance was quite unusual, Mangus returned to his home.

About 2 o'clock next morning Mangus was awakened, he says, by the loud barking of the hound in the front yard. He arose, dressed and with a lantern went out to investigate. What he found was strange enough to amaze even an old and experienced trapper. There in the yard, each caught in a steel trap, and both attached to a log of wood by the chains used to hold the traps, were the hound and a large red fox.

Mangus explained that he had set two traps about ten feet apart and fastened them to a good-sized log. He is of the opinion that the fox came out of a hole early in the evening and got caught in the trap; that the dog took the scent and soon came upon the fox while dragging the log towards its den, with the hope of escaping the trapper. The hound probably made a dash for the fox. Mangus believes and got caught in the second trap, and was prevented from attacking the fox, owing to the limited length of the light chain attached to the log.

He believes that the hound and fox hauled the log around for several hours and that the dog, being stronger than the fox, was enabled to finally reach home, dragging the log and other captive with him.

Both animals were badly hurt. Both of the fox's forepaws were crushed and it was promptly shot. Mangus hopes to save the hound, as only one foot was injured.

The spot where the traps were set is three miles from the Mangus home, the trapper states, and the weight of the log dragged by the hound and fox is about all that one man would care to lift.

Jack declares that nothing so strange as this had ever happened to him during all his many years spent as a hunter, trapper and woodman.

BAVARIA REVEALS GERMAN DUPLCITY AT START OF WAR

London, Nov. 25. (P)—Publication of official reports from the Bavarian minister at Berlin to his home government confirm evidence in the hands of the entente that Germany and Austria conspired to bring about the war. It was for this reason that the terms of Austria's ultimatum to Serbia were made so drastic that hostilities were bound to follow.

These revelations have been published in Munich after permission had been asked by the Bavarian premier and foreign minister of the German federal government. They are in the form of a report sent to Munich on July 18, 1914, by Count Von Lerchenfeld, the Bavarian minister at Berlin.

According to the report the delivery of the ultimatum to Serbia was delayed until after President Poincaré and Premier Viviani of France, had gone to St. Petersburg, which would make it difficult for the entente nations to arrive at an understanding and take counter measures.

Count Von Lerchenfeld said that "Serbia obviously cannot accept such conditions as will be laid down," and that as a consequence "there must be war." He declares that action on the part of Austria could not be long delayed, "for that might give Serbia under pressure from France and Russia, an opportunity to offer satisfaction."

In a telegram to Munich from Berlin on July 31, 1914, Count Von Lerchenfeld said that Sir Edward Grey's efforts to preserve peace would "certainly not succeed in arresting the course of events." Later the same day he wired information as to ultimatums to Russia and France, forecast their rejection by both nations and told of plans to hurl Germany's armies against France, which, he said, would be "overwhelmed in four weeks." He said that the morale of the French army was poor and that it was poorly armed.

On August 4 the Bavarian minister outlined Germany's intention to violate Belgian neutrality, saying:

"The chief of the general staff has declared that even British neutrality will be paid for too dearly if the price is respect of Belgium. An attack on France is possible only through Belgium."

Executive Committee.

The Red Cross election of an Executive Committee for the Lamar County Chapter held on Wednesday of last week resulted in the election of the following:

J. C. Hathaway, E. R. Ausmus, T. B. Pyron, A. Collier, G. B. Trulock, D. N. Haynes, A. K. Haynes, Mrs. S. A. McCuiston, Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. Ada Parsons, Dr. T. W. Buford, W. R. Fisher, J. P. Maxwell, W. R. Justice, A. P. Park, Ralph Province, Mrs. G. M. Price, Miss Sallie Lee Lightfoot, Arthur Caddell, W. C. Clark, Mrs. J. H. Moore.

This committee will meet shortly, and will then elect the officers of the chapter, consisting of the chairman, vice chairman, secretary and treasurer.

Garments To Be Made

There are still many more cut garments at the Red Cross work rooms that must be made by the first of December to complete our quota. Garments are needed just as much as ever and we shall be asked to make them for some time. Please help us with this work.

Christmas Packages

All persons who have not received their Christmas parcel label from abroad should come at once to Paris work room and they shall be furnished one. They cannot be given after November 30.

Garments

Our November quota for garments will not be finished if you women of Paris do not respond more quickly to the appeals that have been made. Surely you are not going to let Lamar Chapter fail in this undertaking. Come or send to the workroom for the cut garments. We have just ten days more to finish a big quota.

WAR-TIME AVIATORS ECONOMIC PROBLEMS

Paris Nov. 26. (P)—What will become of the aviators now that the fighting has ended? Commercial aviation doubtless will be extended greatly, but it is a question whether it will present sufficient attraction to the men who have taken up aviation for the distinction to be won in air fighting.

The Aero Club of France, up to the present, has issued 16,000 pilot licenses and hundreds of military pilots have not taken out the Aero Club's license to which they are entitled.

Inquiry among French aces shows that the majority are too young to be worrying about the next phase of life although some hope that civilian aviation will offer satisfactory careers.

Lieutenant Rene Fonck, the ace of aces, with seventy-five official victories, has not yet decided what he will do, but may remain in the army. Sub-Lieutenant Nungesser with forty-four victories, has decided to quit the army. He has received many offers and probably may go to the United States.

Lieutenant LeMaitre, after leading 135 bombing expeditions, will be in charge of the aerial transport undertaking. A young lieutenant barely of age, who won fourteen victories, says:

"All I know is that I will not continue law studies."

Sub-Lieutenant Bourjade, with twenty-eight successes, probably will have the least difficulty in returning to civilian life. He is a priest and will resume his clerical duties.

"To help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time. It is now being used by over three million people annually, including such men as Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, formerly Secretary of the Treasury and ex-Governor of Iowa; General John L. Clem (Retired), the drummer boy of Shiloh, who was sergeant in the United States Army when only 13 years of age; also United States Judge G. W. Atkinson of the Court of Claims of Washington, and others. Nuxated Iron is dispensed by all good druggists everywhere.

FLYING FISH FLEE FROM HUNGRY CARP

Granbury, Mo., Nov. 25.—William Walton is mourning the loss of several hundred fish.

Four years ago Walton made a trip to the Pacific coast and when he came back he brought five hundred small mountain trout and the same number of flying fish. He put them in an artificial lake that lies in one corner of his farm. Walton had trout for breakfast when they were in season and as there was no season on flying fish he was able to have fish at any time that he wished.

Then he thought he would like a change. Consequently he procured some carp. All went right for a while and Walton decided to get some other kind of fish for the lake. He had the lake divided into two separate ponds and put the trout and flying fish in one pond and the carp in the other.

One day he opened the gate and let the carp in with the trout and flying fish. The next morning he found three of his flying fish in the field adjoining his barn. He thought some intruder had been fishing in the lake as there were no hooks marks in their mouths he could not imagine how they were caught unless some one had used a seine.

The next day he found several more flying fish in the barnyard, and as he was going to the barn that night a fish hit him on the head. He picked it up and as it was still alive he naturally thought that some one threw the fish at him.

He went into the house and procuring his shotgun went out to the lake to watch for the miscreant who was throwing fish at him, but he saw no one.

The next day he found fish flying all over his farm, and going to the lake he discovered that the carp were chasing them, and in order to get away from their savage enemy the flying fish had taken wing and flown so far from the lake they couldn't get back.

An International Service Built on Tiny Profits Per Pound

Some industries have been able to get in step with war demands more quickly than others.

In many cases mighty plants have sprung up—but at a prodigious cost.

The packing industry was able to adapt itself to unheard of demands more quickly, perhaps, than any other industry. And this was because the vast equipment of packing plants, refrigerator cars, branch houses, etc., had been gradually developed to its present state of efficiency, so that in the crucial hour it became a mighty international system for war service.

And how had this development taken place?

Not by making vast inroads into the capital wealth of the country, but largely by using, from year to year, a portion of the profits, to provide for expansion.

Swift & Company's profits have always been so tiny, compared with sales, that they have had practically no effect on the price of meat, (amounting to only a fraction of a cent per pound).

And yet the owners of the business have been content with reasonable returns on their capital, and have been able, year after year, to put part of the profits back into the business to provide for its expansion.

These fractions of tiny profits have been repaid to the public many fold in the form of better service, and better and cheaper meat, and made it possible for Swift & Company to meet, undaunted, the sudden cry for meat for overseas.

Could any other method of financing a vital industry involve less hardship to the people of the country? Could there be a better instance of true "profit-sharing" than this return in added usefulness and in national preparedness?

Swift & Company,

CROSS-CONTINENT

FLIGHT MEETS WITH WRECK; TWO HURT

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 26, (AP)—O. S.
T. Myerhoffer, pilot of the Longhead biplane, traveling from Santa Barbara, Calif., to Washington, D. C., and his mechanic were injured today when the plane fell near Gila Bend, Ariz., a station sixty miles west of here, according to reports received at Southern Pacific railroad headquarters. The extent of their injuries is not known.

The aviators left Santa Barbara Saturday on a proposed two-stop flight to Washington. They were forced to land Saturday at Taona, Ariz., because of engine trouble. Yesterday the flight was resumed.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 26, (AP)—A long distance telephone message from Gila Bend this afternoon stated that the mechanic of the Longhead biplane which fell there today, was badly injured, but that he has recovered sufficiently to talk. The pilot was only slightly injured.

Notice is hereby given to the stockholders and directors of the Paris & Mt. Pleasant Railroad Co. that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Paris & Mt. Pleasant Railroad Co. will be held in the office of the Company in Paris, Texas, on Wednesday, December 4th, 1918, at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., to consider and take all appropriate and necessary corporate action to enable the Paris & Mt.
Pleasant Railroad Co. to accept the terms and conditions and to secure the benefits of the act of Congress approved by the President on March 21, 1918, known as the Federal Control Act, and to authorize and empower the representatives of this Company to enter into and execute all necessary contracts and agreements with the President of the United States, or Director General of railroads, relating to any and all matters and things in connection with the maintenance, operation, supervision, management and control of the said Paris point and authorize the appointment of the necessary and requisite agent or agents to represent and act for the Paris & Mt. Pleasant Railroad Co. in the execution of such contracts and agreements; and to take such other and further action as may be necessary in the premises.

A special meeting of the Directors of the Company will be held at the same time and place on adjournment of the stockholders meeting to consider and act upon the above matters, and to carry out and make effective the action taken at the stockholders' meeting.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes
—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normalous action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, duleyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts inactive bowels, you take one of Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui.
By time I had taken the entire bottle
I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise
Cardui for their present good health.
Give it a trial. NC-133

OUTRAGE OF BELGIUMHASTENED POPE'S END

Paris, Nov. 25.—Pope Pius X. has been dead these four years, and still readers write asking for the truth about the pretty legend to the effect that the pontiff died in Belgium after an effort to stop the flow of blood at its source.

"The legend is too pretty to be true," Jean De Bonnefon writes in the intransigent. "Those who saw Pius X. in the last days of his life can testify that the white-haired old man continued to perform his functions and say his prayers, without stirring, in the vatican. Yet, at the bottom of the legend there is the germ of fact, like a golden bee in the chalice of a chimerical flower.

"Pius X. was killed by the war. He died because he was not able to publish the superhuman letter he wrote on August 6, 1914, to protest in the name of the apostles and of the popes in the name of divine faith and the honor of mankind, against the violation of neutral Belgium. Ten persons know of the text of this letter. A hundred at least know how it happened to be written, and how a power of which it is not possible at this time to speak opposed with threats the publication of a document which would have won the author immortal fame in the memory of the world's righteous men.

"Ill and weak, Pius X. yielded, because he was unable to do anything else, and he died from grief, offering his life as a sacrifice on the altar of truth, since every action was forbidden him. Others who know will tell how his impaired physical strength did not prevent the pope from leaving behind a form of protest which would have astounded the world itself. Others still can tell how the old man was ready to go to the extent of excommunicating the Catholic invaders of Belgium.

"For the moment it is enough to say that Pius X. died in 1914, on the fourteenth day of the world war, and that he wanted to escape the burden of papal neutrality. That he died in Rome instead of in Belgium does not in any way diminish the sorrowful splendor of his end."

NOTICE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by virtue of a resolution passed by the City Council of the City of Paris, Texas, on the 26th day of Nov.
A. D. 1918, and the powers vested in me by the charter of the City of Paris
I hereby order an election to be held in the City of Paris by the qualified voters of the said city, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 6 o'clock
p. m. on the 31st day of December, 1918 for the purpose of electing an Alderman from Ward Two to fill the unexpired term of W. A. McCrary, deceased. The polling places and presiding officers for said election shall be respectively as follows: Ward One:
To be held at Central Fire Station,
Kaufman street, S. M. Hearon, Presiding Officer; Ward Two: Johnston Building, Grand avenue, J. R. Justice, Presiding Officer; Ward Three:
Lamar County Court House, J. E.
Bobo, Presiding Officer; Ward Four:
Lamar Motor Company's building, Lamar avenue, John W. Webb, Presiding Officer. All citizens of the City of Paris who are qualified to vote for members of the State Legislature and who have prior to this election resided in the county for six months and for thirty days in the ward in which they are to vote, are entitled to vote in this election. Given under my hand and the seal of the City of Paris, affixed this 20th day of November, A. D. 1918.

J. M. Crook,
Mayor.

Perkins Bros COMPANY

To The Poultry Public

We pay the highest market price for poultry and eggs every day in the year. The time is almost here for the Thanksgiving Turkey to go to the eastern markets and we expect to ship a number of cars from Paris the coming season. Don't sell your turkeys without telling us. Remember your hen turkeys must weigh seven pounds and over and gobblers 11 pounds and over before they are ready for the market. The Government has asked that turkeys under these weights be held on the farm until they mature.
